

New Transit Signs

New Bus Stop signs will be going up throughout St. Albert in February. The new design will provide transit riders with more information and will allow for clearer communication with those not familiar with the system.

The signs also better coordinate with Edmonton Transit signs, creating a greater regional feel between the two cities.

Route Label

Bus Stop Number

Other versions that will be displayed in specific locations throughout the city.

